Executive Director, The Sophia Way

Dietra Clayton, Executive Director of The Sophia Way, has a 20-year career focused on helping people throughout the continuum of care – in-home caregiving, supporting people with disabilities, those who are HIV positive, and caring for individuals with psychiatric problems.

Joining The Sophia Way in 2017 as a part-time, on-call shelter worker, Dietra “fell in love with the organization and its work.” In 2019, she was designated director of Client Services and Shelter Programs, and supervised a staff of 20, overseeing all aspects of programming, services, provider support, and advocacy for those experiencing homelessness. In 2021, Dietra took on the role of leading the organization as its Executive Director.
