

PAMELA KOSTECKI

Executive Director, Crisis Center for South Suburbia

PAMELA KOSTECKI
Tinley Park, IL

Ms. Kostecki brings more than thirty years' non-profit experience to her role including direct services to homeless individuals, veterans, children, students, and others. Ms. Kostecki's experience as an executive director, adjunct professor, social worker, counselor, and program manager uniquely positioned her to assume this post.

Her extensive experience in crisis intervention, conflict management, program development and management, along with analytical thinking and strategic planning are valuable assets to her work at the Crisis Center for South Suburbia.

A recipient of the Lewis University De La Salle Award for Service and Leadership in the Community in 2009, Kostecki has been consistently recognized by her colleagues and the communities she has worked in for her strong work ethic and strategic leadership.

Qualities that have proven to produce tremendous growth and enhancement to programs under her direction. She has worked tirelessly to expand the programs and services that positively influence the communities she serves.

Ms. Kostecki is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker with the State of Illinois. She holds a Master's degree in Social Work from Aurora University and received her undergraduate education from Illinois State University.

She completed the Mission-Based Leadership and Organization Development program at Notre Dame University and is a certified trainer in Non-Violent Crisis Intervention.
