

CHERON MASSONBURG

Chief Program Officer of Housing, Health and Wellness, Breakthrough

CHERON MASSONBURG, BSN, RN
Chicago, IL

Cheron Massonburg is Chief Program Officer at Breakthrough, where she brings over 23 years of experience in community-based program management.

In her role, Cheron oversees a broad spectrum of essential services, including Transitional and Permanent Housing programs, food services through the Fresh Market food pantry, Behavioral Health services, and Community Economic Development programs.

With a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and extensive hands-on experience as a Registered Nurse, Cheron applies her healthcare expertise to lead and enhance Breakthrough's initiatives.

Since joining the organization in 2001, she has been dedicated to supporting adults facing homelessness and crises with empathy and professionalism.

Her leadership has been instrumental in delivering high-quality services to more than 18,000 individuals and families annually, fostering a compassionate and effective environment for community support and development.
