

ROSARIO TREJO

Deputy Housing Program Officer, Downtown Women's Center

ROSARIO TREJO
Los Angeles, CA

Rosario Trejo (she/her) is the Deputy Housing Program Officer at the Downtown Women's Center and oversees a multi-disciplinary team that provides client-centered services at every stage of the housing stabilization process.

Rosario holds over 12 years of experience working with women and gender diverse individuals in Los Angeles.

Since joining DWC in 2014 she has held various roles in leadership and direct services, implementing and leading innovative community based and site-based housing programs.

