CIARA JONES
Miami, FL

National Women's Shelter Network, Inc.

Ciara is a dynamic women's advocate with a powerful personal story of resilience and transformation. Having experienced homelessness firsthand at a very early age, Ciara is dedicated to empowering women facing similar challenges.

With a solid background in business management, she combines her lived experiences with professional expertise to drive impactful change. Ciara's journey from homelessness to advocacy began when she overcame significant personal obstacles to secure stable housing and rebuild her life – with the Help of Lotus House Women's Shelter.

Through this process, she gained a deep understanding of the systemic issues that contribute to women's homelessness and the barriers they face in achieving economic independence. Leveraging her business acumen, Ciara is dedicated to developing and leading initiatives aimed at providing women with the tools and support they need to thrive.

She has worked with Lotus House in the past serving in several different capacities, creating programs focused on financial literacy, job training, and entrepreneurial skills. Her efforts have empowered countless women to take control of their futures and break the cycle of poverty.

Ciara is a sought-after speaker and mentor, known for her compassionate approach and unwavering commitment to women's advocacy. She believes in the power of community and the importance of giving back. Through her work, Ciara continues to inspire and uplift women, proving that with determination and support, anyone can overcome adversity and achieve their dreams.
