

MODOU NYANG

Senior Director of Homeless Youth Services, Friends of Youth

MODOU NYANG
Kirkland, WA

Modou Nyang is a seasoned professional with over a decade of experience in community development, housing programs, and budget management. He has a strong track record of leading complex projects, building partnerships, and advancing equity and social justice initiatives. Modou's expertise spans strategic planning, policy analysis, and program management, with a deep understanding of homelessness response systems.

He holds advanced degrees in community planning and public policy, complemented by a background in youth development. As the Senior Director at Friends of Youth, Modou oversees multiple service programs, driving strategic initiatives and fostering key partnerships.

His previous roles include Regional Community Capacity Specialist at KCRHA and Program Manager positions at several organizations, where he managed budgets, developed performance metrics, and enhanced service delivery.

Currently, as a Research Fellow, Modou assesses the impact of tenant protection ordinances and analyzes market dynamics in Tacoma. His experience also includes strategic planning and stakeholder management in community-focused initiatives.

Modou is committed to creating positive community change and continues to make a significant impact in community development and housing programs.