

CAROLYN RAYFORD

Director of the Shelter and Transitional Living Program, Alternatives For Girls

Carolyn Rayford has been the Director of the Shelter and Transitional Living Program at Alternatives For Girls in Detroit for 11 years, managing services for homeless female youth, ages 15-24, and their children.

Prior to this, Carolyn spent more than 25 years working with foster children in the Child Welfare System in Michigan.

A passionate advocate, she leads efforts to end homelessness in the community.

CAROLYN RAYFORD
Detroit, MI

